Dear Sirs:

Please accept this reinstatement notice on behalf of BRF Business Services Inc. I was notified from a title company that it was expired. I have seven corporations and all except this one was filed. The only explanation we could find was that due to a change of address, we did not receive the notice. We have always been very good about these filings and would not have missed it if we had the notice. If there are any further monies owed or any questions please let me know.

Sincerely,

Robert Browning
President
