Dear Ms. Peck:

I sent the filled out blank annual report under separate cover, which I received the afternoon of my conversation with your staff member. (I had requested a blank form earlier this month). On July 29th, I called your office and spoke to one of your staff, Phyllis. Phyllis consulted with you when I told her I never received any annual report filing information this year. Phyllis told me that many people have reported that they did not receive their annual report and when I was able to fill mine out to send a letter of explanation with a check for $150, NOT the $550 late filing fee. As I explained to the original gentleman from the Division of Corporations with whom I spoke, I never received an annual report filing form, nor any follow up correspondence from the Division of Corporation's office.

I have already sent you a a check for $150 and a filled out annual report form. Thank you very much for your cooperation and understanding in this case. Please send any farther filing forms or correspondence to me at the above address, which is my home. I included this address on the annual form at the business address.

Very truly yours,

Linda A. Hill
