ARTICLE XIII
PROVISIONS FOR REGULATION OF THE INTERNAL AFFAIRS OF THE CORPORATION

For the regulation of the business and for the conduct of the affairs of the Corporation, to create, divide, limit and regulate the powers of the Corporation, the Directors and Shareholders, provision is made as follows:

a) General authority is hereby conferred upon the Board of Directors of the Corporation, except as the Shareholders may otherwise from time to time provide or direct, to fix the consideration for which the shares of stock of the Corporation shall be issued and disposed of, and to provide when and how such consideration shall be paid.

b) All corporate powers, including the sale, mortgage, hypothecation and pledge of the whole or any part of the corporate property shall be exercised by the Board of Directors, except as otherwise expressly provided by law.

c) The Board of Directors shall have power from time to time to fix and determine and vary the amount of the working capital of the Corporation and direct and determine the use and disposition of any surplus or net profits over and above the capital stock paid in, and in its discretion the Board of Directors may use and apply any such surplus or accumulated profits in purchasing or acquiring bonds or other obligations of the Corporation or shares of its own capital stock to such extent, in such manner upon such terms as the Board of Directors may deem expedient.

d) The Board of Directors shall have the power of fixing the compensation by way of salaries and/or bonuses, and/or pensions of the employees, the agents, the officers and directors, all or each of them, in such sum and form and amount as may seem reasonable in and by their discretion.

e) Any one or more or all of the Directors may be removed, either with or without cause, at any time by the vote of the Shareholders holding a majority of the stock entitled to vote of the Corporation at any special meeting, and thereupon the term of each Director or Directors who shall have been so removed shall forthwith terminate, and there shall be a vacancy or vacancies in the Board of Directors, to be filled as provided by the By-Laws.

f) Any officers of the Corporation may be removed either with or without cause, at any time, by vote of a majority of the Board of Directors.

g) No contract or other transaction between the Corporation and any other corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any one or more of the Directors or officers of this Corporation is or are interested in or is a director or officer or are directors or officers of such other corporation, nor shall such contract or other transaction be affected by the fact that the Directors or officers of the Corporation are personally interested therein. Any Director or Directors, officer or officers, individually or jointly, may be a party or parties to or may be interested in any contract or transaction of or with the Corporation or in which this Corporation is interested; and no contract, act or transaction of this Corporation with any person or persons firm, association or corporation shall be affected or invalidated by the fact that any Director or Directors or officer or officers of this Corporation is a party or are parties to, or interested in such contract, act or transaction or in any way connected with such person or persons, firm, association or corporation. Each and every person who may become a director or officer of this Corporation is hereby relieved, as far as is legally permissible, from any disability which might otherwise prevent him from contracting with the corporation for the benefit of himself or of any firm, association or corporation in which he may be in anyway interested.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned being the incorporator of this corporation has executed these Articles of Incorporation.

Dated the 16th day of May 1995.
