Dear Sirs:

We have today received our first notice of the 1999 PROFIT CORPORATION ANNUAL REPORT packet for our company. Although it was labeled as a second notice, it was the first one we received this year.

We endeavor to submit our filings in a most timely manner, but it is difficult to do so when the forms are not received as expected. Although I am certain it was mailed on time with a myriad of others, I imagine the post office is too blame, as it so often is.

In view of this unfortunate occurrence, and seeing as how this present submission is being made on the day of our receipt of the packet marked "Second Notice", we respectfully request your assistance in accepting our filing fee of $150.00 herewith.

Your kindest cooperation is most deeply appreciated. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Morris D. Solomon, Vice President
