creditors, or admit in writing its inability to pay its debts generally as they become due, or take corporate action in furtherance of any such action.

(ix) amend the Articles of Incorporation or the Bylaws of the Corporation or approve an amendment to the Limited Partnership Agreement governing the Partnership; or (x) withdraw as general partner of the Partnership.

"NINTH. SEPARATENESS PROVISIONS - The Corporation shall:

(a) maintain books and records and bank accounts separate from those of any other person;

(b) maintain its assets in such a manner that it is not costly or difficult to segregate, identify or ascertain such assets;

(c) hold itself out to creditors and the public as a legal entity separate and distinct from any other entity; and

(d) hold regular Board of Director and stockholder meetings, as appropriate, to conduct the business of the Corporation, and observe all other corporate formalities.

The Corporation shall not:

(a) commingle its assets or funds with those of any other person; or

(b) guarantee or pay the debts or obligations of any other person."

Third: The foregoing amendment of the Articles of Incorporation was adopted as of the 14th day of May, 1996, by written consent of all of the members of the Board of Directors and approved by written consent of all of the holders of outstanding stock of the corporation as of the 14th day of May, 1996.
