To Whom It May Concern,

I just received my 1999 Profit Corporation Annual Report packet in the mail. Unfortunately it is the 2nd notice with a late fee instead of 1st notice. For some reason, I did not receive my first notice.

I am aware that it is my responsibility to pay this on time, however, it escaped my notice that this was not paid yet and that it needed my attention. I called the phone number provided in the packet to explain this situation, and was informed to make this known to you in writing. I was told that by doing so, I could make the original $150 payment.

You will find that my past records show that I have made my payments on time, and that I have not been charged a late fee before. My wish is that you please accept this explanation.

Thank you for your time and consideration in this matter.

Sincerely,

Glenn G. Daugherty
