Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed is your most recent notice pertaining to the administrative dissolution or revocation of Team Solutions, Inc. and a check for $150.00. In early September I received your second notice and I called your office to discuss the situation. I had not received any prior notices and was instructed to send in the second notice with a letter of explanation along with $150.00. This is where it got out of hand.

I had just lost a major piece of business that was providing over 75% of my income. I didn't have the $150.00 to spare at that point and held the document until I could pay the fee. On October 2nd my father-in-law, who had been living with us for over a year, died suddenly and not much happened after that until I received the enclosed notice.

It was never my intent to dissolve my company and, because of my current financial situation, I just this week was able to come up with the $150 to send with this letter. I am barely surviving until I can build the business back to its former condition.

If at all possible, I would respectfully ask you to reconsider your decision to dissolve my corporation and reinstate it for the original fee of $150.00. Please understand that I would not be asking you for this if I wasn't in a bad spot financially.

If you need to contact me for any reason, please call me at (404) 668-4132. Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

Sincerely,

George J. Haberkern
President
