To Whom It May Concern -

10/7/03

Today, to my horror, I reviewed the year's files as it is the end of my company's fiscal year. I realized that I never received the uniform business report to file, nor did I see any check written to you. Our company is tiny & it's just myself & my husband. I don't know how or why we did not receive this report to file but I assure you it was never intentional that I wouldn't pay this. We always have been on time for the last 8 years & we pay our state sales tax on time also. I never would not pay what is due but please I implore you to restate us at the regular fee of $150.00 which I have enclosed. This is such a shock to me that this happened, and I am very upset. Financially, the large reinstatement fee would hurt us so bad during these hard times. Please, I implore you to accept the $150.00 check in reinstatement fees. My husband works 7 days a week to keep this company going. Thank You so much -

Mafne Herring
