RE: Re-Submission of documentation regarding the UBR Reports for 2001

Dear Sir/Madam;

I am respectfully writing to you regarding the copies of a letter I received for three corporations regarding the filing of the uniform business reports for

- UniQuest International, Inc.
- UniQuest International Consulting Inc
- Storm Financial Corporation

The letter acknowledges receipt of $450.00 filing fees for the three corporations, however, states the report has not been filed because it was late and I owe late fees on all corporations.

I had contacted your offices on July 11, 2001 to advise you my check of April 24, 2001 had not cleared and requested advice on how to proceed. The lady I spoke with said to put everything in writing and submit it to the Division of Corporations, Uniform Business Report Filings, PO Box 1500, Tallahassee, Florida. The person I just spoke with, (Robin), suggested I resubmit the letter and send it to a different post office box.

I would respectfully request this matter be looked at once again. I personally mailed the reports envelope from my office building. I have had occurrences in the past with mail from this location that took a long time to be delivered, however, I never took the time to pursue that with the post office. Unfortunately in this instance, it has become a very serious issue.

I have been filing important documents for many years and am aware of deadlines and have never missed a deadline. I promise you I did mail the forms and fees in question. I do not know what else I can say to address this situation. I also realize you may be inundated with people claiming they mailed their forms. I assure you I mailed the forms with a check. That is part of my job and I do not take it lightly.

Please read the enclosed letter and re-consider this situation. If there is anything further I can provide, I would gladly comply.

Thank you for your time and I look forward to your reply.
