Dear Ms. Williams,

Thank you for your help on the phone this morning.

Enclosed you will find another form for Corporation Reinstatement. This is all filled out in original and signed by me. (As we discussed, my check has already been received and processed.)

Enclosed you will also find the Application for registration of fictitious name. We are simply changing our dba name from Party Universe to Party America. Our Corporation name will remain the same.

You requested that I send this to your attention with both forms. Thank you so much for your help in resolving these.

Please notice that I did ask for copies of each of these documents.

Sincerely,

Phil Thomas

Dear Ms. Williams,

Initially, your office was the one that told me of the years not filed, and the amount needed in order to bring all of the filings up to date. I followed their instructions by printing the forms from the internet. Also, as instructed, I mailed the completed forms (with the check). They did not ask me for the years not filed, since that information was available to them (and not to me). The forms were only filed for one year to my knowledge, and that was the first year in business. After that, the renewals were mailed to an old address on Lagoon Drive (Panama City Beach) which resulted in me not getting them.

I hope that this answers all of the questions needed.

Thank you for your help.
