Re:

2003 Uniform Business Report

We were quite disturbed to receive a second request for the annual filing of our corporate reports. After calling your office I was told that there was no record of any of the three reports that we had filed together in April of this year. I have also checked with our bank and found that our check to you was never presented for payment indicating that our filings seem to be lost somewhere.

I have included copies of our three corporate filings which I have signed again for an original signature, a copy of the original check sent to you on 4/14/03 and a new replacement check in the amount of $450.00. I will check your website in a couple of weeks to verify that our filings were processed. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

Gary E. Hakimian
