To Whom It May Concern:

Per conversation with your office last week, I am enclosing copy of original form and check (#191) sent on the 19th of April, 1999. The original form and check was apparently never received by your office; as your sending of the Late Filing form prompted my attention. As it was suggested to me last week, I am enclosing a new check for the filing fee of $150.00 and have put a stop payment on the original check (#191). If original check found or received, please return to me.

Please accept this new check (# 206) for the Annual Report Filing Fee, as the loss of the first one and the form is unexplained and was beyond my control. Please feel free to call me at my office if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Servando Alzati, President
