Dear Ms. Sellers;

Thank you for again sending me a 2001 Uniform Business Report. I have completed it and enclosed our $150.00 filing fee.

As we discussed during my recent telephone call, I do not know why we continue to not receive the preprinted report at our mailing address. When I checked with my Registered Agent (CSC in Tallahassee), they said that they had not received it either.

The Tequesta Post Office could not explain it either, so I hope you will waive the penalty fee. Could we possibly have the report sent to both the Florida and North Carolina addresses next year, so we will not have to go through this again in the future?

Thank you for your anticipated help and understanding. Please let me know if you need anything further.

Yours truly,

John J. Regan, Jr.

Dear Ms. Sellers:

I hope you can again help me with the delay in my Corporate Filing caused by the USPS.

In the past, I never received the Uniform Business Reports, which were sent to our address of record in Tequesta, and you were kind enough to send a blank form for me to fill out.

This year, I just recently received a package from the Tequesta P.O. (a copy of the envelope enclosed), with a bunch of dated mail and my dated 2002 Uniform Business Report enclosed. While I am pleased the P.O. sent this dated mail given my experiences in the last few years, I only wish they had done it when they were supposed to do it.

Last year in my letter to you (copy enclosed), I requested that the report be sent to both Florida and North Carolina addresses in 2002. Apparently, they were unable to do so, because I never received it in NC. I am therefore hoping you will again waive the penalty fee.

Thank you for your anticipated help and understanding. Please let me know if you need anything further.

Yours truly,

John J. Regan, Jr.
