RE: Personnel Incorporated
P95000051044

To Whom It May Concern:

We are in receipt of a "Notice Of Administrative Dissolution Or Revocation" of the above stated corporation. Upon receipt of this notice we telephoned your office regarding the above stated matter because our check in the amount of $150.00, check #2527 was submitted to your office on July 13, 01 for payment of the corporation filing fees. Your office has stated that a letter was sent to us on or about July 26th, indicating dissolution would be forthcoming should late fees and penalties not be paid. Our office has never been in receipt of such a letter, and if we had received this notification, I can assure you, we would have responded immediately, just as we are responding to this document. We are a 100% , over 40 years old, woman-owned business. It is clearly our desire to remain in business and to abide by all regulations in a timely manner. We respectfully request a waiver and refund of all penalties as a result of this unfortunate error, and ask that you accept our sincere apologies if this was an error on our part. In view of the current economic situation around our country, I am sure you can understand what a struggle it is to remain in business under the best of circumstances. Our business is one that actively seeks and finds employment for individuals out of work, at no charge to them. It is our desire to continue to operate this business. and ask for your understanding and consideration of the importance of every dollar of revenue, especially in a market that is plagued by vast corporate downsizing at all levels, which has drastically affected our revenue as well.

Thank you for your respectful consideration.

Sincerely,

Diane Knepper
