RE: CORPORATION LETTERS

To Whom It May Concern:

We are in receipt of your letters which indicate that we owe an additional fee for late filing. Please be aware that we did not file late due to circumstances not under our control but as you can see with the attached letter from the US Postal service, that we had not been constantly receiving our mail. As the post office has mixed our address with another address and was storing (in many cases) our mail for months.

After numerous complaints by vendors we had ultimately discovered that our mail had been stored in 2 large bins of mail in some cases dated back 5 months; included in that bin were the Corporation Renewal Notices.

Upon learning of this we immediately contacted the Florida Department of State and were advised by their department that because of the circumstances, not receiving the 'Corporate Renewal Notices', and that the late fees would be waived and to send a letter explaining the situation and to also enclose the renewal forms; which we did. The forms we used of the web were wrong and a new one was sent by FL Department of State; which was again returned by the department of State, we thought all was resolved till your letter. We now have received these letters and are again responding to them; any help you can give us in getting this matter cleared up we would be greatly appreciated.

If you have any questions regarding this matter please do not hesitate to contact the Post Master, whose name and contact information, appear in the letter or you can contact me directly Sam Caliendo (561)789-4000. Thank you.

Sincerely,

Sam Caliendo

To Whom It May Concern:

Our customer, Sam Caliendo of P. O. Box 880, Boca Raton FL 33432 has recently had some mail delayed by the Postal Service.

Mr. Caliendo receives a lot of mail and his mail was put in a container, and held. Mr. Caliendo did not know it was held, it seems we failed to put an "overflow notice" in his P. O. Box.

As a result, he received a tub of mail that been sitting here in our pickup area. Unfortunately it had been here for quite some time.

Please accept this as documentation of his inability to respond to certain mail as he had no access to it. If you need to verify this please feel free to contact me at 561-417-3204.
