RE: FEI # 58-2186652; SKAWLDID DAWG, INC.

Dear Madame or Sir:

I am writing this letter to request the waiver of any late filing fee for my company's Uniform Business Report (UBR). Basically, I did not receive the blank UBR form by mail until July 3, 2003. I recently tracked down the United States Postal Service carrier who delivers mail to me, and who delivered the UBR form to me on July 3, 2003. The postal carrier remembers the writing he made on the envelope, because it was addressed to my company, c/o my usual residential address. He told me that the "Skawldid Dawg, Inc." didn't seem like the right name for our address. The postal carrier has signed a letter confirming the fact of delivery on July 3, 2003, which is enclosed.

I can attest that the previous mailing, if it was sent, never arrived at our home. I have always consistently filed this annual report early to avoid delays. This year, notification was not received. Please accept our filing of this report and the $150.00 fee which was due previous to this latest mailing which was barely received.

Sincerely,

Sarah J. Parker
