Re: Falasca's Services, Inc.
Custom Metal Creations, Inc.
and letter sent to you dated December 26, 2002

To whom it may concern:

A single check in the amount of $450.00 was sent to you (it has cleared my account) to cover both corporation fees. The purpose of this payment was clearly stated on my letter of December 26, 2002 - $300.00 was to be applied to Falasca's Services, Inc. and the remaining $150.00 was to be applied to Custom Metal Creations, Inc.

The entire amount was only applied to Custom Metal Creations, Inc. for 2002 and 2003, which leaves a balance of $150.00. I request this $150.00 be applied to Falasca's Services, Inc. and — 2001
I am including an additional check in the amount of $300.00 which will bring Falasca's Services, Inc. paid up to and including the entire year 2003. ROA

Sincerely,

Richard A. Falasca

Re: Falasca Services, Inc. and
Custom Metal Creations, Inc.

To whom this may concern:

This letter is to inform you that Falasca's Services, Inc. and Custom Metal Creations, Inc. did not receive any forms to renew or reinstate each of the afore mentioned companies. Both of these companies are located at the same address.

It appears there was a delivery problem for the postal service as the building next door has the same number on their door, but as a unit number and not street number. I discussed this with the postal service and the owner of the building next door and I believe the problem has been resolved.

I was told by telephone the cost to renew or reinstate would be as follows:

Falasca's Services, Inc. at $300.00
Custom Metal Creations, Inc. at $150.00

As acting president of both companies I am including two checks to cover both amounts.

I thank you in advance for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Richard A. Falasca
