Re: Late Filings

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed are four 2000 Uniform Business Reports (UBR) indicating our SECOND NOTICE for payment of our corporation fees. Please note that we did not receive our first notice of filing for any of these corporations. The first notices were probably sent to our old address and not forwarded to our new address.

The second notice was also sent to the wrong address for Empire Financial Group, Inc., G & G Holdings, Inc., and Advantage Trading Group, Inc. I have updated the mailing address in the UBR.

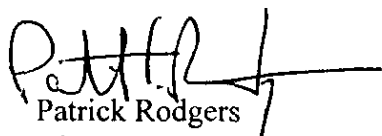

Please accept the enclosed fees and UBRs for the above corporations, in the amount of $150 each as we feel our files were not updated with our change of address information. This is evidenced by the different mailing address and principal place of business address for Empire Financial Group, Inc., and the proper address for Empire Investment Advisors, Inc.

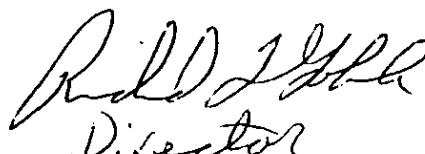

The enclosed UBRs are:

G&G Holdings, Inc.	Document # P96000100146
Empire Financial Group, Inc.	Document # L94737
Empire Investment Advisors, Inc.	Document # P99000080633
Advantage Trading Group, Inc.	Document # P95000057001

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Patrick Rodgers
