Leslie Sellers Division of Corporations P.O. Box 6327 Tallahassee, Florida 32314

Dear Ms. Sellers,

As per my conversation about reinstating my corporation. I had what I thought was a reliable secretary who I entrusted to pay all the bills for the corporation.

I gave her authority to pay the corporation annual fees, the vehicle renewal fees, occupational license renewal and all things related to the business which I was under the assumption was being done. Then I find that my corporation is inactive and started to check other things. (which I found nothing had been paid and not only was the money gone but so was she).

She and her boyfriend had stolen the money, forged my name to checks and had cashed them, stolen tools and small equipment while I was out of town and then disappeared.

I have filed charges against her. The case is with the Brevard County Sheriff Department, Detective Geri Parsons Case #96-171923. The Cocoa Police Department also are involved and their case number is 96-053554, Detective Todd Mangold is in charge of the Cocoa case.

I had a friend of mine call you and explain the situation and you had checked with your supervisor so I would not have any penalties to pay.

I have filled out the annual report which you sent me and I have enclosed the $200.00 which you stated had to accompany the form.

Thank you very much for your help.

Sincerely

John A. Quarno III 1005 Walkiki Drive
