To Whom It May Concern:

Regarding the enclosed reinstatement application for DM International Ltd., Inc., in September of 1998 the taxpayer changed office locations and, to the best of his knowledge, did not receive the annual report form for 1999.

The taxpayer has indicated to me that there was some difficulty in having the mail sent to his new location due to administrative problems at the former office location. The taxpayer has filed all tax returns on time and adhered to all other reporting requirements. The 1999 annual report was not filed simply because the taxpayer did not receive the form, and was not aware to look for the form.

The taxpayer has now retained my services to assure that all reporting requirements are met and I do not anticipate that the taxpayer will violate any reporting requirements in the future. On behalf of the taxpayer I am requesting an abatement of late filing penalties due to reasonable cause.

The taxpayer in no way intended not to file or violate any reporting requirement. The taxpayer simply did not receive the form due to a relocation and was not aware of its existence to do any follow up. The non-filing situation was accidentally discovered by the taxpayer during a credit check. Again, the taxpayer has now retained a CPA to insure this situation will not occur in the future.

Enclosed is a properly completed reinstatement form with a check for $150.00 1999, as well as a check for $150.00 for the 2000 Uniform Business Report. The form contains the new address and the taxpayer is now aware of the reporting requirement and knows to look for the Uniform Business Report in the future.

On behalf of the taxpayer I sincerely thank you and the Department of State for any consideration granted in the waiving of late filing fees.

Sincerely,

Nick P. Cola, CPA
