I, Leonardo Quintao, SS#595-11-9430, come to explain why the annual report fee was filed late. First, I did not receive the application through the mail. I found out that the annual report was late through the accountant when he asked me when I had paid the fee. Therefore, I called the department immediately asking for the form. I filed it as soon I received the form. Two weeks later, I received a letter saying that there was a missing area in the application which enable the department to process it and it also mentioned a dead line I must send the application back in order to avoid the late fee. The application was resent before the dead line. In the same way, two days later I received another letter from the department, N. 197A00037642, saying that the late fee must be paid in order for the application to be processed. Honestly, I come to ask for an exemption for the late fee because I would not delay any payment intentionally, in promise to never happen again.

Sincerely,

Leonardo Quintao
