APPENDIX III

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO

Each day, a number of new users of Facebook have experienced that one unfortunate event: a photograph of their purchase has appeared on their personal account. The company has not disclosed the operation of the program, but it is common for a photograph of a package and an address label of the package to be posted to a user's account without the user's knowledge. Facebook has not yet been able to remove the offending photos, and the price of such photos is offered to others. As time goes on, the number of Facebook users who
