We have received your document for INSURANCE AGENCY OF DELAND, INC. and your check(s) totaling $70.00. However, the enclosed document has not been filed and is being returned for the following correction(s):

In reviewing our records, we note there is a(n) INSURANCE AGENCY OF DELAND, INC., Document number 633293, in existence.

Because of the similarities between the existing corporation and the one you are now seeking to file with us, and because it is our duty to assure that all fees due this office in accordance with section 607.0130(2)(c), Florida Statutes, are collected, we are returning the articles of incorporation unfilled and must request you return the existing corporation to good standing by completing the enclosed reinstatement application and submitting it with the appropriate fees.

The fees to reinstate the corporation are as follows: $175 reinstatement fee, $61.25 filing fee per year for the years 1989 through the current year, $138.75 supplemental fee for the years 1992 forward. The total fee to file the reinstatement is $1158.75, therefore, there is a balance of $1088.75 due. Add an additional $8.75 for each certificate of status requested.

Please return your document, along with a copy of this letter, within 60 days or your filing will be considered abandoned.

Re: Insurance Agency of Deland, Inc.

Dear Sir or Madam:

Enclosed is a copy of your letter indicating that there are substantial outstanding annual fees due in connection with the above-named corporation, that such corporation has been involuntarily dissolved, and that you did not file the articles of incorporation I sent you to form a corporation of the same name. Please be advised that the articles I sent to you are for the formation of an entirely new corporation. The subscriber to the stock of the new corporation (my client) had nothing to do with the old, dissolved corporation. My client is certainly not going to pay to reinstate the old corporation. The only question, I suppose, is whether his new corporation may use the name of the old, dissolved corporation. Since my understanding of the law is such that we may use the old name for the new corporation, I would appreciate your filing the enclosed articles. If not allowed, then please advise as to whether we must file entirely new articles using a different name or whether you will file the new articles retroactively and then allow us to change the name. (A practical concern is that this new corporation has been conducting business.)

Sincerely,

Steven M. Chamberlain
