ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION

OF

V & J DISTRIBUTING, INC.

The undersigned hereby associates himself for the purpose of becoming a corporation under the laws of the State of Florida, by and under the provisions of the Statutes of the said State of Florida, providing for the information, rights, privileges, immunities and liabilities of the corporation for profit.

ARTICLE I

The name of this corporation is V & J DISTRIBUTING, INC..

ARTICLE II

The principal place of business and mailing address of this corporation is 510 W. 65th Terrace, Hialeah, Florida 33012.

ARTICLE III

The general nature of the business to be conducted and carried on by this corporation is:

- (a) Any and all business permitted under the laws of the United States and the State of Florida.
- (b) To engage in every aspect and phase of each and every lawful business or operation permitted by the laws of the State of Florida, including, but not limited to, the right and power to manufacture, distribute, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to own, mortgage, pledge, sell, assign, transfer, or otherwise dispose of, and to invest in, trade in, deal in and with goods, wares, merchandise, real and personal property, and services of every class, kind and description; except that it is not to conduct a banking, safe-deposit, trust, insurance, surety, express, railroad, canal, telephone, telegraph, or cemetery company, a building and loan association, mutual fire insurance association, cooperative association, fraternal benefit society, state fair or exposition.
- (c) The foregoing shall be construed as independent businesses, and the enumeration of any specific business shall not restrict any other business of the corporation.
- (d) The corporation shall, in addition, have the power to carry on any other lawful business whatsoever in connection with the foregoing, which is calculated directly or indirectly to promote the interests of the corporation, or to enhance the value of its assets.

- (e) Any meeting of the stockholders or directors may be held within or without the State of Florida, at such place as the by-laws of the corporation may designate.
- (f) To enter into, make and perform contracts of every kind of description with any person, firm, association, corporation, municipality, county, state, body politic or government or colony or dependency thereof.
- (g)
 - (1) The corporation shall have the right to purchase, take, receive, or otherwise acquire, hold, own, pledge, grant a security interest in, transfer or otherwise dispose of its own shares but purchase its own shares, whether direct or indirect, shall be made only to the extent of unreserved and unrestricted surplus.
 - (2) To the extent that earned surplus or capital surplus is used as the measure of the corporation's right to purchase its own shares, such surplus shall be restricted so long as such shares are held as treasury shares. Such restrictions shall be allocated on a pro rata basis to the treasury shares and upon the disposition or cancellation of any such shares, the restriction shall be removed to the extent it is attributable to the shares disposed of or canceled.
 - (3) Notwithstanding the limitations contained in subsection
 - (1) the corporation may purchase or otherwise acquire its own shares for the purpose of:
 - (a) Elimination fractional shares.
 - (b) Collecting or compromising indebtedness to the corporation.
 - (c) Paying dissenting shareholders entitled to payment for their shares under the provisions of the General Corporation Act.
 - (d) Effecting, subject to the other provisions of the General Corporation Act, the retirement of its redeemable shares by redemption price.
 - (4) No purchase of or payment for its own shares shall be made by a corporation at a time when the corporation is insolvent or when such payment would make it insolvent.

- (5) The corporation may keep books of the company outside the State of Florida, except as may otherwise provided by law.
- (6) The corporation may make by-laws not inconsistent with the Constitution or laws of the United States, the State of Florida, or with these Articles of Incorporation.
- (7) The corporation shall have full power and lawful authority to issue execute, assign and endorse notes, mortgages, bonds, and all other negotiable papers; to hold, buy and sell stock of other corporations; to secure any indebtedness due it in the same manner common to natural persons. It shall have the full power to loan money and to secure the payment thereof by accepting mortgages, personal endorsements or assignments of personal property or other security. It may sue or be sued, contract or be contracted with, and do any and all other acts necessary or incidental to the powers herein specifically designated.
- (8) The stockholders shall have the power, either in the by-laws of the corporation or by contractual agreement among themselves, to make any provisions for cumulative voting and to make any limitations on the sale, assignment, transfer, pledge, hypothecation or other disposition of the stock of the corporation, as to which the stockholders of the corporation deem necessary and/or proper, for the best interest of the corporation.
- (9) The objects and purposes specified in the foregoing clauses shall be, except where otherwise expressed, in no way limited or restricted, by reference to, or inference from, the terms of any other clause in these Articles of Incorporation, but the objects and purposes specified in each of the foregoing clauses of these Articles shall be regarded as independent objects and purposes.

ARTICLE IV

- (a) The stockholders are authorized to enter into an agreement regarding the limitations and requirements of voting, which said agreement shall be binding upon all persons.
- (b) The maximum shares of stock which this corporation is authorized to have outstanding at any time shall be Seventy-Five Hundred (7,500) at One Dollar ($1.00) per value each, all said stock and value thereof are issued in accordance with Section 1244 of the Internal Revenue Code and the regulations issued of the Internal Revenue Code to continue for a period not greater than two (2) years from the acceptance of these Articles of Incorporation by the State of Florida.

- (c) All of the aforementioned stock is to be issued as fully paid for and non-assessable.
- (d) There shall be pre-emptive rights to acquire unissued or treasury shares of the corporation, or securities of the corporation convertible into or carrying a right to or acquiring shares. Stock in other corporations in going business may be purchased by the Corporation in return for the issuance of its capital stock; the said purchase shall be on such basis, and for such consideration, and the issuance of so much capital stock as the Directors of the Corporation may decide.
