3/5/97 (2)

This letter is about my son, Michael B. Henry incorporated as Ace Coatings of Tampa Bay Document # P95000072103

Attn:

Dear Mrs. Leslie Sellers

Just a note for your files, in regard to our telephone conversation of 3/5/97 about the re-instatement of my son's incorporated papers. He's a painter, and to refresh your memory, the accountant a Mrs. Peggy Saunders (d.b.a.) Bay Area Business Services Tampa Fl. had told him to watch for a renewal ^{fee} to come into his mail and to let her have it, if it did, but she told him, the first year he may not get one. As you know, one was not sent out to him, and being newly incorporated he didn't know to call up there and ask for one.
He was going by what this accountant told him. As she was the one he paid to file incorporation papers for him and he evidently signed a contract with her at the time as well (unknowingly) because he gets a bill from her every month so he has to use her services. (She looks over his receipts, cancelled checks etc)

Then when a letter came telling him his corp. had been dissolved and telling him he had to pay $915.00 to just reinstate it.
He told me about it and asked me to please call there and tell you about this.
Well I didn't know you, but to talk to some one there about it. Since he could not pay $915.00 to reinstate. and because this accountant caused the error.

Thank you Sincerely Mrs. Virginia Henry
