ARTICLE II

The duration of this corporation shall be perpetual unless sooner terminated. The corporation shall be deemed to commence on the date of execution and at the time of acknowledgement of these Articles.

ARTICLE III

This corporation is organized for the purposes of engaging in any and all lawful business for which corporations may be incorporated under the Florida General Corporation Act as in effect at the date of commencement hereof and as amended thereafter.

ARTICLE IV

In the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of the corporation, the holders of record of the common stock shall be entitled to receive distribution pro rata of the remaining assets of the corporation.

Each share of common stock shall have equal and full voting rights and powers and the holders of record thereof shall be entitled to one vote for each share so held. For the purposes of meetings of shareholders, the number of shares required to constitute a quorum shall be a majority of the shares entitled to vote.

ARTICLE X

Any action of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing shall be signed by the holders of outstanding stock having not less than the minimum number of votes that would be necessary to authorize or take such action at a meeting at which all shares entitled to vote thereon were present and voted.
