ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION
OF Marte Herbal Products, Inc.

The undersigned, in order to form a corporation for the purposes hereinafter stated, under and pursuant to the laws of the State of Florida, do hereby subscribe(s) to these Articles of Incorporation.

ARTICLE I

NAME

The name of the corporation is Marte Herbal Products, Inc.

ARTICLE II

GENERAL NATURE OF THE BUSINESS

The general nature of the business to be transacted by the corporation may be any activity or business permitted under the laws of the United States and of the State of Florida, including but not limited to the following:

To sell security and alarm equipment, systems or devices.

To purchase, sell, lease, operate, own, hold, transfer, convey, mortgage, or otherwise encumber, trade, exchange and generally to deal in real estate and personal property of every kind, nature and description wheresoever located;

To own, operate, lease, manage, and in every way to engage in the business of such owning, operating, leasing and managing of hotels, apartment houses, motels, residences and business properties, and business either for itself or others, to acquire and dispose of, whether by sale, purchase, barter, trade or otherwise, all notes, and evidences of indebtedness arising out of or in connection with such ownership, operating, leasing or managing; to make all contracts and to do all acts, and to establish all offices or places of business connected with any of the foregoing businesses or with any of the activities related to the foregoing purposes; and it shall have the following additional powers, the enumeration of which (or any of the powers enumerated above) shall not be exclusive of any and all other powers which might be enjoyed by a natural person.

To finance the deferred portions of installment purchases of all property, both real and personal; to buy, sell, develop or dispose of mortgages of real estate and personalty, contracts receivable and all evidences of indebtedness and choses in action having to do with real or personal property; to buy, sell market, distribute, produce and in every way deal in all kinds of characters and descriptions of property, real, personal or mixed, including agricultural products; to maintain, develop, promote, finance and otherwise deal in the patent rights, trademarks, or applications for the same or patents pending; to operate and maintain any and all stores and offices for the purpose of carrying on any and all classes of retail and wholesale business for itself and others, and to engage in any other kind of business that a natural person might engage in; and to do any and all acts, to make any and all contracts and to negotiate and accomplish all things necessary or incidental to the carrying on of any of its businesses.

To purchase, grant, bargain, sell, lease, rent, convey, improve, mortgage or otherwise to acquire or dispose of any encumbered real estate and personal property, for itself and for others. It shall have the power and lawful authority to act as agent for others in negotiating the sale of real estate, the placing of loans, the buying and selling of mortgages, the building of houses or other buildings, the development of estates and the carrying on and conducting of a general real estate business.

To have full power and lawful authority to issue, execute, assign and endorse notes, mortgages, debentures, bonds and all other negotiable paper; to hold, buy and sell stock of other corporations; to secure any indebtedness due to it in the same manner common to natural persons. It shall have the full power to loan money and to secure the payment thereof by accepting mortgages, personal endorsements or assignments of personal property or other security. It may sue and be sued, contract and be contracted with, and do any and all other acts necessary or incidental to the powers herein specifically designated. It shall have the power to enter into general partnerships, limited partnerships (whether it be a general or a limited partner), joint ventures, syndicates, pools, associations, and other arrangements for carrying on one or more of the purposes thereof, jointly or in common with others.

ARTICLE III

AMOUNT OF AUTHORIZED CAPITAL STOCK

The maximum number of shares of stock which the corporation is authorized to issue is FIVE HUNDRED (500) shares, having One Dollar ($1.00) par value per each.

The capital stock may be paid for in property, labor services at a just valuation to be fixed by the incorporator(s) or by the director(s) at a meeting called for such purposes or at the organization meeting.

Property, labor or services may also be purchased or paid for with the capital stock at a just valuation of said property, labor or services, to be fixed by the director(s) of the corporation. Stock in other corporations or going businesses may be purchased by the corporation in return for the issuance of its capital stock, and said purchase shall be on such basis and for such consideration and the issuance of such amount of the capital stock as the director(s) may decide.

No holder of stock of the corporation shall be entitled as such, as a matter of right, to subscribe for or purchase any part (either pro rata share or otherwise), of any new or additional issue of stock of any class whatsoever or securities convertible into or evidencing the right to purchase stock of any class whatsoever, whether now or hereafter authorized or whether issued for cash, property or otherwise.

A director of the corporation shall not, in the absence of actual fraud, be disqualified by his office from dealing or contracting with the corporation either as vendor, purchaser or otherwise; and, in the absence of actual fraud, no transaction or contract of the corporation shall be void or voidable by reason of the fact that any director or any firm or corporation of which any director is a member is in any way interested in such transaction or contract, provided that the fact that such director or firm is interested in the transaction or contract is disclosed to the corporation, and that such transaction or contract is authorized, ratified, or approved either (1) by vote of the majority of a quorum of the Board of Directors or of the executive committee, if any, without counting in such majority any director so interested or who is a member of a firm or corporation so interested; or (2) by vote at a stockholders' meeting of the holders of record of the majority of all the outstanding shares of stock of the corporation then entitled to vote or by writing or writings signed by a majority of such holders, which shall have the same force and effect as though such authorization, ratification or approval were made by all the stockholders; and no director or firm or corporation of which a director is a member shall be liable to account to the corporation for any profits realized from or through any such transaction or contract. Nothing in this paragraph contained shall create any liability in the events above mentioned or prevent the authorization, ratification or approval of such contracts or transactions in any other manner permitted by law, or invalidate or make voidable any contract or transaction which would be valid without reference to the provisions of this paragraph.

The corporation shall indemnify each director and officer of the corporation against all or any portion of the expenses reasonably incurred by him in connection with or arising out of any action, suit or proceeding in which he may be involved by reason of his being or having been an officer or director of the corporation (whether or not he continued to be an officer or director at the time of incurring such expenses), such expenses to include the cost of reasonable settlements (other than amounts paid to the corporation itself) made with the view to curtailment of cost of litigation, except that no sums shall be paid in connection with any such settlement unless the corporation is advised by independent counsel that the officer or director so indemnified was not derelict in the performance of his duty as such officer or director. The corporation shall not, however, indemnify such director or officer with respect to matters as to which he shall be finally adjudged in any such action, suit or proceeding to have been derelict in the performance of his duty as such director or officer, nor in respect of any matter on which any settlement or compromise is effected, if the total expense, including the cost of such settlement, shall substantially exceed the expense which might reasonably be incurred by such director or officer in conducting such litigation to a final conclusion and in no event shall anything herein contained be so construed as to protect or authorize the corporation to indemnify any such director or officer against any liability to the corporation or its security holders to which he would otherwise be subject by reason of wilful misfeasance, bad faith, gross negligence or reckless disregard of the duties involved in the conduct of his office. The foregoing right of indemnification is cumulative and shall not be exclusive of any and all other rights to which any director or officer may be entitled as a matter of law.

ARTICLE IV

FURTHER AND OTHER POWERS

The corporation shall have all the powers given to it by the laws of the State of Florida, now or hereafter, and any specific powers herein enumerated shall not be construed as a limitation upon the powers of the corporation.

ARTICLE V

STOCKHOLDERS' AGREEMENTS

The stockholders of the corporation may divide themselves into groups for the purpose of obtaining unit control in the corporation, and the stockholders may enter into Stockholders' Agreements between themselves. Such agreements shall be binding upon the corporation and shall be recognized by the director(s) and observed by the officers and agents of the company; and, particularly, the stockholders are authorized to include in such agreements entered into between themselves, provisions which confer upon individual groups the power to elect certain members or directors, and, in particular, stockholders may include in agreements between themselves the following as valid matters of agreement, to-wit;

1. The manner and method in which, and the persons by whom, directors may be elected;
2. Any limitation upon the transferability or assignability of the stock;
3. The conferring of the preemptive rights of purchase upon stockholders as conditions precedent to the sale of any other stock;
4. Any matters related to effectuating the purposes included in any of the foregoing matters.

Agreements between stockholders shall continue binding upon the corporation until there is filed with the President and Secretary of the corporation, in duplicate, a written instrument signed by the persons who originally created such Stockholders' Agreements (for their successors in ownership, providing such succession in ownership shall have been accomplished in accordance with the terms of such Stockholders' Agreements) consenting to the revocation, cancellation and/or amendment of agreements among the stockholders.
