Dear Dept. of State,

Upon speaking with a lady in one of your offices and explaining why this payment was justifiably late. I was asked to write a letter.

We are a very small company and are still getting our feet off the ground. We changed our mailing address the end of '97 to the new one on the annual report. I was under the impression we contacted your office at that time to report the change. However - you guys still mailed the annual report to the old address. Due to the mix up in the mail we just recently received the forwarded mail.

Against we are a ^{very} small company, please be understanding of our situation and accept our 1998 annual report and payment. We do take pride in paying all of our bills on time!

Sincerely,

JOHN NUGLES. president.
