Re: Our File No. 4770
Intercontinental Marketing Systems, Inc.
First Ventures of Florida, Inc.

Gentlemen:

This is to request that you waive the penalty and additional fees for the annual report filing for the two corporations referenced above. This request is based upon the hardship suffered by the principle of these corporations who was responsible for filing the reports earlier this year when her spouse was taken seriously ill with heart problems and underwent by-pass surgery. She was distracted from the filing requirements for these two corporations at that time and only discovered recently that she had neglected to mail and file the returns which she had prepared and completed just before her husband was suddenly taken ill.

The annual reports for these corporations have always been timely filed in the past and we can attest to the punctuality and efficiency of this client in her past dealings with us for the last several years. Please give this request your favorable consideration and let us hear from you as soon as possible. We have enclosed payment of the regular fees for filing the annual reports along with the reports themselves.

Very truly yours,

Albert M. Salem, Jr.
