Dear Sirs:

As per my telephone conversation today with your office, I am enclosing the annual reports for the above two companies, along with my payment of $150,00 for each company.

As I noted on the telephone my father was ill, and I was out of the country attending to his medical needs. Since I am the only one who can sign checks and forms as representative of the company's, I was unable to file these forms since I was away, as a result of this family illness.

I respectively request that you abate any penalties resulting from these medical related circumstances. I have always filed the annual reports in a timely manner in past years and assure you that they will be filed timely in the future.

Thank you in advance for your understanding of this health related situation.

Very truly yours.

Ingvi Temasson President
