Re: Annual Report
P95000081758

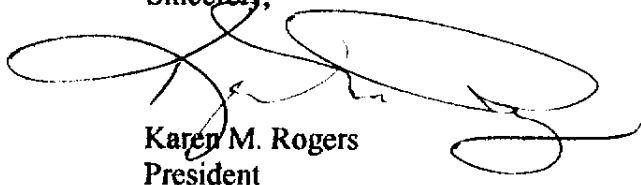

I have been in correspondence with your offices since May of this year regarding the address for my self, as President of KaBi Enterprises, Inc. The original address is still correct and has not changed in the last year.

After receiving this information back in June, see attached copy, I called and asked what exactly should be done. I was instructed and sent the package back out. In July, the same package was returned with the same notation and again, I called and got some input as to the order that the notations should be made. Again, the package was returned within the specified period.

I have now received a copy of a new report, explaining that I did not file and there is a charge of five hundred dollars. I have reviewed all of this information with my attorney, my accountant and your office and the fully agreed resolution is as follows: The information and the report is current and valid and requires no additions or changes; a check for the original amount owed ($165.00) is enclosed; copies of previous letter and report are attached.

I am in hope that this will finally rectify this continuing dilemma I find us in. The information is correct and has not changes, If for some reason, you need more or different information, please show me exactly what you want as you have everything I know to give.

Sincerely,

Karen M. Rogers
President
