RE: Cox Ventures VI, Inc.
FEIN 59-3351723

On October 15, 2001, a "Notice of Administrative Dissolution or Revocation" was received in our office for the above referenced corporation. This is the only notice we have seen.

The current staff, myself included, are all new. We have been working here for about three months. Our only recourse was to rely on the records left to us by the former office staff. Those records include a copy of a check, dated March 15, 2001, for the "Uniform Business Report" and a copy of the signed report dated March 16, 2001 (copies enclosed).

Further research has revealed that this check #3614 for $150.00 has not cleared our bank and to our knowledge it has never been returned. We are putting a "Stop Payment" on this check.

Enclosed is a replacement check for $150.00. Also enclosed is the "Application for Reinstatement" signed by the Registered Agent and President of the corporation. It is my hope that after careful consideration you will conclude that payment was attempted in accordance with accepted procedures in a timely manner, and by concluding the check was lost in the mail, you will accept our payment and reinstate the corporation.

Respectfully,

David Burmeister
Comptroller
