Dear Sir or Madame:

Please find enclosed our completed form. We understand this should have been filed by the 13th of September, in order to avoid paying an additional amount of money.

As you will notice, there has been a change of address from last year. We only just received this form in today's mail, and have filled it out immediately upon receipt. Unfortunately, our mail has not been reaching us since the change of address, and this is the reason the form and payment has been submitted late.

Based upon the aforementioned information, we are hopeful that you may waive any penalty or additional fees due. Any consideration you may be able to give us in this matter would be greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your assistance with this.

Yours very truly,

Trudy Nicholas
