Dear Sir or Madam:

Main Street Consulting made the correction indicated on your letter of 9 April, 2004.
The corrected form was mailed to your office in mid-April.

We are in possession of correspondence from your office indicating the corrected form was never received.

Enclosed find a newly executed form.

As the check for one hundred and fifty dollars mailed on 2 April was cashed by your office, I assume there are no further costs associated with this filing. This assumption was acknowledged as being accurate after a telephone conversation with your office.

Sincerely,

John Glennon
