To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing this letter to inform you that my change of address several months ago has caused many problems for me.

I submitted a change of address form months ago and even phoned in last month to correct this problem, considering I have not received any corporate notices since about November of 1996. I have just sent in my 2nd change of address form in my effort to correct this dilemma.

The corporate filing notice I received just recently (unfortunately after the deadline) from my old apartment complex's management office. I ask with all sincerity that you understand my situation and except my filing late.

You should notice my new address on my check and my old address printed on the corporate filing form .

Sincerely,

George Condorodis
