Dear Friend,

I have recently received a noticed that my corporation was dissolved because of none payment of fees. My accountant Jim Bryan had delayed in sending out our corporate fee of 165.00, so he agreed to pay the penalty of 385.00 out of his pocket (see attached copies). Your office should have received 550.00 in total from us in July. The checks were mailed around July 16th 1997. These checks are missing either at your facility or at the U S postal service lost and not found. They have not been returned to us or cashed.

We are asking you to please waive any other late fees and reinstate our corporation due to compliance on our part in sending the fees in July.

We have enclosed 550.00, If you need to call me or our accountant please feel free.

Thanks for your help and Happy Holidays.
