Section One. Merger. BEACON shall merge with and into AIRPORT, which shall be the surviving corporation.

Section Two. Terms and Conditions. On the effective date of the merger, the separate existence of the absorbed corporation shall cease, and the surviving corporation shall succeed to all the rights, privileges, immunities, and franchises, and all the property, real, personal, and mixed of the absorbed corporation, without the necessity for any separate transfer. The surviving corporation shall thereafter be responsible and liable for all liabilities and obligations of the absorbed corporation, and neither the rights of creditors nor any liens on the property of the absorbed corporation shall be impaired by the merger.

Section Three. Conversion of Shares. The manner and basis of converting the shares of the absorbed corporation into shares, rights, obligations, and other securities of the surviving corporation is as follows:

(a) That the absorbed corporation, BEACON, is composed of only one shareholder which owns 100 shares each of common stock; therefore, for each share of the One Dollar ($1.00) par value common stock of BEACON issued and outstanding on the effective date of the merger shall be converted into 1.5 shares of the One Dollar ($1.00) par value common stock of AIRPORT, which shares of common stock of the surviving corporation shall thereupon be issued and outstanding. However, in no event shall fractional shares of the surviving corporation be issued.

(b) The conversion shall be effected as follows: After the effective date of the merger, each holder of certificates for shares of common stock in the absorbed corporation shall surrender them to the surviving corporation or its duly appointed agent, in such manner as the surviving corporation shall legally require. On receipt of such share certificates, the surviving corporation shall issue and exchange therefor certificates for shares of common stock in the surviving corporation, representing the number of shares of such stock to which such holder is entitled as provided above.

(c) Holders of certificates of common stock of the absorbed corporation shall not be entitled to dividends payable on shares of stock in the surviving corporation until certificates have been issued to such shareholders. Thereafter, each such shareholder shall be entitled to receive any dividends on shares of stock of the surviving corporation issuable to them hereunder which may have been declared and paid between the effective date of the merger and the issuance to such shareholders of the certificate for his or her shares in the surviving corporation.

Section Four. Changes in Articles of Incorporation. The articles of incorporation of the surviving corporation, AIRPORT, shall continue to be its articles of incorporation following the effective date of the merger.

Section Five. Changes in Bylaws. The bylaws of the surviving corporation, AIRPORT, shall continue to be its bylaws following the effective date of the merger.

Section Six. Directors and Officers. The directors and officers of the surviving corporation, AIRPORT, on the effective date of the merger shall continue as the directors and officers of the surviving corporation for the full unexpired terms of their offices and until their successors have
