We would like to apologise about we are late with our annual report, but problems in our company keep us in our country, Brazil, too long, we just arrived this week and as soon we got clue about this annual report we are sending you right away.

We hope that you could waive the late fee, because we are a small company, and that amount means too much for us, we promise that next year we gonna send you the annual report as soon as it come for us.

We are foreigners and we have some difficult with the english language, because that we would like to apologise about the gramatical errors in this letter, we hope your understanding about our problems and give us another chance, that we will apreciate very much.

If you have any question regarding this letter, you may call us anytime, and we can help you.

Thank you
