November 13, 1997

To Whom It May Concern,

I am writing to ask for a waiver of charges for the administrative dissolution of Julia Mair & Associates Entertainment, Inc., P95000089039. This is my first year as a Florida corporation and to my knowledge I never received any forms for the continuance of this company. I also never knew to look for them, since I had hired an accountant to make sure that I did everything I needed to do on time.

I am a one person home-based company doing writing, research and development and, as I said, I had no idea that I was to receive specific forms and file them. I have been out of the state of Florida an enormous amount of time this year due to the Alzheimer's illness of my mother in Alabama. It is very possible that these forms were lost or misplaced since I frequently had mail held at the post office or vandalized in my absence. I also send any government forms of notices immediately to my accountant. He has also informed me that I did not send him any forms like this or he would have explained them to me.

I am hoping that this appeal will suffice. I will be looking for them vigilantly in the future and intend to secure a PO Box. so that mail cannot be lost in my absence. Enclosed is my check for $165.00 for the normal filing fee.

Sincerely,

Julia J. Mair
