Re: Lortay, Inc.; Doc#: P95000094055

January 21, 2005

To Whom It May Concern,

My letter is a plea to reinstate my small corporation, Lortay, Inc.

Due to a combination of my own blunders and external mistakes, Lortay Inc, has been dissolved. Our attorney and your office tell me the bad news.

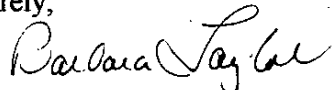

Firstly, as your Internet Support person said on the phone today, I had filed our 2004 Annual Report under New Filing Section instead of under Business Report. I assumed the transaction had gone through correctly and later found a transaction fee on my credit card further confirming my assumption.

The Internet Support person told me I had been notified of my error by e-mail. Unfortunately, I did not see that e-mail nor any notification by regular mail.

I am asking that you waive the $600 penalty fee. Ours is a small company and the large penalty will have a drastic impact on our financial standing. I ask that you accept the enclosed check for the 2004 and 2005 Annual Report and reinstate our Corporation.

Thank you for your consideration of this request. I promise you we have learned from our mistakes and have taken strong safeguards against future repetition.

Sincerely,

Barbara Taylor, President
