To Whom It May Concern,

This letter is a request for abatement of penalty for late filing for the above client. This client is an over the road truck driver and is gone most of the time. During the time this report was due he was out on the road. When he returned home he didn't have the report in his mail to file. He didn't even think of filing until he finally received the second notice. He has a problem at times receiving his mail. It would have made sense for him to pay the $150.00 and file on time if he received the first report rather than be forced to pay the $550.00 for late filing. He has always paid his report on time prior to this incident. Please take this matter into consideration.

Thank you,

Lisa Wiggins
