To whom it may concern:

We recently received our original envelope, annual report and company check # 1276 dated 4/18/97 back in the mail with a question mark written on the front of our envelope. We had noticed that our check had not cleared our bank but had wrote it off to a delay in processing. We would appreciate your confirming receipt of this mailing. Additionally, we have received another notice from you with regard to filing. What is going on? Are you refusing our annual report for some reason? There was no note attached, just the contents of our response back in April. If we do not hear from your office within 10 days we will attempt to contact you again by telephone. Please respond.

Sincerely,

Christiana Smith
