To whom it may concern,

This letter is an explanation in order to waive penalties charges imposed on GR2000 INC the Uniform Business Report (UBR) for late filing.

Last Year 2002 GR2000 UBR form was file along with the appropriate address change. That address change was not properly completed by the Florida Department of State therefore GR2000, INC did not received the original UBR form for 2003. I received however two weeks ago a UBR Form with a late fee of $400. I noticed that this form had the delivery address incomplete (suite number missing).

I tried to explain this in a previous letter by mail and filed the $150 annual fee. The letter was ignored so I received another letter asking for the $400. In such letter there was no mention of the letter explaining this situation.

I have attached in this FAX copies of:

1. This year UBR with late fee and delivery address with Suite # missed.
2. Last Year UBR with the Address change.
3. Copy of Florida Department of State initial reply.

Given these conditions I would ask you to consider my circumstances and have this penalty being fully granted or reduced.

I apologize for the inconvenience this filing might cause, but I believe I have a point in my petition.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Alejandro Peralta.
DIRECTOR - GR2000 INC.
