Re: National Professions, Inc.
Carousel, Inc.

Gentlemen:

I enclose herewith the annual reports for the two above-named corporations.

I recently discovered that I had not received the renewal form for either corporation this year. I telephoned your office to confirm this and was sent a blank form which I have copied and filled in for both corporations.

Attached herewith are checks for the regular filing fee. I would very much appreciate you waiving the late fee in this instance since I did not receive the renewal. I have paid corporation fees every year since 1979 and have never been late. I was the sole stockholder of Flagler Reporting from 1979 until 1996 and also the sole stockholder of Cooper Academy of Court Reporting from 1987 until 1996. I have never filed the annual reports late once in all those years for Flagler Reporting and Cooper Academy of Court Reporting, or for my current corporations, National Professions and Carousel since 1992 when they were formed.

I would therefore ask you to accept my statement that I did not receive the renewals and allow me to pay the regular filing fee.

Your understanding in this matter is greatly appreciated.

Sincerely,

Brenda J. McSwigan
