Dear Sir or Madam,

I am on bended knee begging your forgiveness. My plea is guilty by reason of stupidity. I failed to send in my annual report for my corporation, The Bug Man Pest Services Inc. I am a first time filer and thought I had taken care of everything for my new corporation.

When I filed all my tax returns and all the forms and all the various things that were so new to me I honestly believed that you all were taken care of also.

I sent in a Florida Corporate Income/Franchise and Emergency Excise Tax return with no payment due and a Florida Intangible Tax Return for Corporation with $8.82 due. I thought these folks and you were the same and I didn't end up owing you much year as a corporation.

See how stupid I was! I can't believe what I have done to myself and my new business. I am begging you to give us amnesty this one time and accept this check for $165.00.

We are a very small new business. Every penny counts and I am so very, very sorry for my mistake.

Thank you so much for your attention and consideration.

Sincerely,

Deborah J. Funk
