The specific purposes for which this Corporation is formed are as follows:

- (1) To improve and obtain employment and training opportunities for the disabled;
- (2) To perform outreach services to the disabled;
- (3) To assist the disabled in understanding their rights;
- (4) To make the public aware of issues facing the disabled and to act as a clearing house and a public information center for matters affecting the disabled; and
- (5) To investigate and generate funding (from government, charitable and other private sources) for the Corporation, and for special projects.

The Corporation shall have all the powers set forth in the Act as in effect from time to time.

This Corporation is organized, operated and designed to be eligible for exemption from federal taxation pursuant to 26 U.S.C. 501(c)(3), and similar sections of the United States Internal Revenue Code. As such, the purposes of this Corporation are limited to those set forth in the statutes and regulations governing such tax-exempt organizations. In order to carry out its general purposes, the Corporation shall have the power to receive contributions and grants from government agencies and private organizations. The Corporation shall possess all other powers and privileges afforded not-for-profit corporations organized and established pursuant to the Act, which are not inconsistent with obtaining and maintaining Section 501(c)(3) status.

ARTICLE VI
