Dear Sir or Madame:

This letter is to inform you that we had not previously filed an annual report with your office because we have moved our place of business and did not receive the forms. I recently called your office and requested the forms, and that is when I found out that we had to fill out the enclosed forms. I have also enclosed a check in the amount of $165.00 as instructed by your office. I apologize for this inconvenience, please let me know if you should need any further information.

I thank you in advance for your kind assistance as to this matter.

Respectfully,

Mirta Seijo
