ARTICLE VII

Director's Conflict of Interest

A. No contract or other transaction between a corporation and one or more of its directors or between a corporation and any other corporation, firm, association or other entity, in which one or more of its directors are directors or officers or are financially interested, shall be either void or voidable for this reason alone, or by reason alone that such director or directors are present at the meeting of the Board of Directors or a committee thereof which approves such contract or transaction, or that his or their votes are counted for such purpose:

(1) If the facts of such common directorship, officership, or financial interest is disclosed or known to the Board of Directors or committee, and the Board of Directors or committee approves such contract or transaction by vote sufficient for such purpose without counting the vote or votes of such interested director or directors; or

(2) If such common directorship, officership, or financial interest is disclosed or known to the shareholders entitled to vote thereon and such contract or transaction is approved by vote of the shareholders; or

(3) If the contract or transaction is fair and reasonable as to the corporation at the time it is approved by the Board of Directors, a committee or the shareholder.

B. Common or interested directors may be counted in determining the presence of a quorum at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee which approves such contract or transaction.

ARTICLE VIII

Informal Action of Directors

If all the directors severally or collectively consent in writing to any action taken or to be taken by the corporation and the writings evidencing their consent are filed with the secretary of this corporation, then the action shall be as valid as if it had been authorized at a meeting of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE IX

Removal of Directors

At a meeting of stockholders called expressly for that purpose, any one director or the entire Board of Directors may be removed, with or without cause, by a vote of the holders of a majority then entitled to vote.

ARTICLE X

Meetings by Telephone Conference

Members of the Board of Directors may participate in special and regular meetings of the Board of Directors by means of telephone conference or similar communications equipment as provided by law.

ARTICLE XI

Capital Stock

This corporation is authorized to issue shares of stock as follows:

- (a) Designation. The stock of this corporation shall be known as common stock.
- (b) Authorized. The maximum number of shares of common stock that this corporation may issue is 200 shares.
- (c) Par Value. Each share of common stock shall have a par value of One Cent.
- (d) Consideration. Shares of common stock may be issued in exchange for cash, real property, labor or services rendered, or any combination of the foregoing. In the absence of fraud in the transaction, the judgment of the Board of Directors as to the value of any such consideration shall be conclusive. (e) Non-Assessability. Each share of common stock shall be issued in exchange for consideration which is at least equal to the par value thereof and shall be fully paid and non-assessable.

(e) Voting Rights. Each share of common stock shall entitle the record holder thereof to one (1) vote upon each proposal presented at meetings of the stockholders of this corporation.

(f) Cumulative Voting. No holder of common stock shall be entitled to any right to cumulative voting.

(g) Dividends. Record holders of common stock are entitled to receive their prorata share of any dividends that may be declared by the Board of Directors out of assets legally available for that purpose.

(h) Liquidation Rights. Holders of common stock are entitled, in the event of the liquidation or dissolution of this corporation, to receive their prorata share of any of the remaining assets of this corporation, after payment of all corporate debts and obligations.

(i) Preemptive Rights. Each stockholder shall have the first right to purchase shares (and securities convertible into shares) of any class, kind or series of stock in this corporation that may from time to time be issued (whether or not presently authorized), including shares from the treasury of this corporation, in the ratio that the number of shares he holds at the time of issue bears to the total number of shares outstanding, exclusive of treasury shares. This right shall be deemed waived by any stockholder who does not exercise it and pay for the shares preempted within thirty (30) days of receipt of a notice in writing from the corporation stating the prices, terms and conditions of the issues of shares, and inviting him to exercise his preemptive rights. This right may also be waived by affirmative written waiver submitted by the stockholder to the corporation within thirty (30) days of receipt of notice from the corporation.
