Department of State Annual Reports Filings Division of Corporations P.O. Box 6327 Tallahassee, FL 32302

Dear Sirs,

I respectfully request that you accept this check for $150.00 as payment in full for my 1998 profit corporation annual report tax. The late fee of $400.00 should not apply because we, my accountant or I, never received the first notice for payment.

The reason we did not receive the first notice is because of a wrong mailing address. Explanation: My accountant moved the previous year. I used his office as my mailing address. We notified your office of the change last year. (Please note the addresses on the preprinted form. His old address was in Miami and the current address is in Ft. Lauderdale. - So this change of address was made last year.) Then this year, I moved from Miami to Winter Park (note address above). Somewhere between both moves, the first notice was never received.

My accountant informs me that his office did not receive the first notice, and likewise, I did not receive the notice. Since we did change the address the previous year, and the first notice seems to have been mailed to an address that was over a "year old," I suspect this is the reason we did not receive the first notice. I don't know how we ever received the second notice.

I summary, since we did change the address last year, and the notice was mailed to the old address, and our previous tax forms were sent in on time, I request that this check for $150.00 be accepted as paid in full. Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Max Ammerman
