To whom it may concern:

In April of 1997 I sent a check for $165.00 for the renewal of this corporation. However, when I called today for a letter of good standing I was told that this renewal was sent back to me on April 17, 1997 for federal identification number. I never received this so I had no idea this has not been filed. As per my conversation with one of your representative I was told to send a replacement check for $165.00 along with a letter of explanation.

Thank you very much for your cooperation in this matter.

I remain,
